

Miss Valborg Huglen

Miss Huglen graduated from Newfolden High School in 1942. She started to teach in the Newfolden Elementary in 1947, and taught there for 45 consecutive years before retiring. Her love of children was beyond description, many former students still keep in contact with her. Many students had their children and grandchildren taught by Miss Huglen. She was able to instill the love of school in many children, especially in nurturing their love of reading. Valborg is respected by the community of Newfolden in the highest manner possible.
